Quorum and Voting Procedures

Quorum

The majority of all members of the Clinton Board of Education (the “Board”) shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Voting Procedures

- A. No member can vote on a question in which the Board member has a direct personal or pecuniary interest.
- B. Members may vote for themselves for any office or other position.
- C. While it is the duty of every member who has an opinion on a question to express it by vote, a Board member cannot be compelled to do so.
- D. A member may abstain from voting (with the knowledge that the effect is the same as if the Board member had voted on the prevailing side).
- E. The votes of each member of the Board upon any issue before the Board shall be recorded in the minutes of the session at which taken.
- F. Board members shall have the opportunity to explain their votes, with the explanation to be recorded in the minutes.
