

For the assignment, you are writing no more than 2 page summary per article. So, four summaries total. They don't have to be exactly two pages; if you can do it in a page and a half, and include all the required information, that's fine.

If you want to use a different source than the NY Times "Room for Debate", that's fine. You need to find two different perspectives about the same topic to compare and contrast. Follow all instructions. Email me at cwest@tmsacademy.org if you have any questions.
