School Goal & Next Steps

- We have a school goal around work completion (both in-class and homework)
- SMS students tend to not turn in work when it is partially completed.
 - We want to build a culture of “better turned in than missing” with support.
 - We want to build skills with students on organization, reflection, goal setting, and self-advocacy
- Next Steps:
 - Building teacher skills around supporting students in building relationships that foster a climate of work completion
 - Building student skill for navigating life as a “student”
