Social Studies Grade 6
(SO 2354)
United States History to 1865

Counselors are available to assist parents and students with course selections and career planning. Parents may arrange to meet with the counselor by calling the school's guidance department.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Social Studies 6 focuses on the early beginnings of the United States through the Civil War. The student will have the opportunity to expand on his or her earlier studies of Virginia and American History through in-depth study of the political, economic, social and cultural development of the nation.

The course places special emphasis on study skills, locating and using varied sources of information, communicating ideas effectively, working cooperatively with others and planning and using time efficiently. Thinking skills are developed as students examine historical issues and events to determine the contrasts between eras, evaluate information, identify points of view and recognize bias. Students are encouraged to investigate personalities and topics of personal interest by reading. Fundamental concepts in civics, economics and geography are developed within the context of United States history.
