

South-eastern School Alma Mater

Lyrics – Rob Hodgkin (2019)
Music – George W. Warren (1876)

The musical score is written in 4/4 time with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It consists of four systems, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment line. The lyrics are: "Oh, sweet South-east - ern, proud - ly now we stand For the fin - est high school in our bless - ed land. With heads held high at So - uth - east - ern's name, We cher - ish your glo - ry and your fame!"

System 1:
Soprano/Alto: Oh, sweet South-east - ern, proud - ly now we stand
Tenor/Bass: Accompaniment

System 2:
S/A: For the fin - est high school in our bless - ed land.
T/B: Accompaniment

System 3:
S/A: With heads held high at So - uth - east - ern's name,
T/B: Accompaniment

System 4:
S/A: We cher - ish your glo - ry and your fame!
T/B: Accompaniment